Our local food heroes

The North West is rapidly becoming the food capital of Great Britain...thanks in no small part to our army of amazing artisan producers, farmers and growers...the people who provide us with the freshest, tastiest ingredients we could possibly ask for.

Now something of an annual celebration, this is the night we pay homage to 'Our Local Food Heroes' it's Nigel and the kitchen brigade's chance to produce a menu that simply radiates colour, flavour and local goodness.
