

30th December

Northcote Brigade Gourmet Evening

A sell-out every year, this is the night when the Kitchen Brigade designs its own menu, including dishes from the restaurants where they've learned from other great chefs. These are the dazzling stars of the future, giving us a taste of what to expect as they develop their own unique styles.

If you're planning to come as a party of 12 or more, ask about the availability of our Private Dining Room and enjoy the Brigade Evening in exclusive privacy.
