We've scoured the local landscape, from the Northcote gardens to the coast; from marshes to hedgerows, discovering exciting flavours that marry together in this very special gin.

A contemporary juniper-forward dry gin with Lancashire burdock root and marsh samphire from the Ribble estuary. Rich and earthy with a smooth mouth feel, the gin is enhanced with bittersweet notes of orange and sea buckthorn.

SCOTCH WHISKY

THE HIGHLANDS

MACALLAN, GOLD

£11.00

The replacement for the classic 10-year-old, the gold offers no age statement, instead highlighting the colour. Still with a lovely sherriness to it, this whisky now has a touch more honey, vanilla and citrus.

GLENMORANGIE, 10 YEARS OLD

£12.00

Scotland's favourite dram has a spicy and fruity nose with hints of cinnamon and sandalwood, and a creamy-textured palate full of malty sweetness and buttery notes.

GLENMORANGIE, QUINTA RUBAN

£18.00

Two years in a port cask give this a pinkish blush, as well as pronounced fruity notes. The port cask releases toffee notes and gives a delightful touch of sweetness.

GLENMORANGIE, NECTAR D'OR

£16.00

Always the first distillery to experiment with unusual wood finishes; this is one of Glenmorangie's real success stories. An amazingly rich and concentrated whisky with a gorgeous sweetness from the sauternes casks.

GLENMORANGIE, SIGNET

£32.00

Whilst the exact secrets of its production are known only to its creators, we can tell you that signet's melting sweetness and explosive spiciness is, at least in part, caused by the unique roasted 'chocolate' barley malt and the 'designer casks' made bespoke for Glenmorangie from American white oak. With a score of 93/100 in "Jim Murray's whisky bible" this is a mighty fine tippie.

GLENTURRET, 10 YEARS OLD

The new malt from Perthshire's popular distillery has plenty of characteristics in common with its predecessor, the 12-year-old; a creamy, mellow dram with distinctive ginger, honey and spice.

ROYAL LOCHNAGAR, 12 YEARS OLD £10.00

Queen Victoria reputedly mixed this malt with her claret, thereby ruining two of the world's finest drinks! A pleasant toffee-ish nose, and hints of dried fruits and liquorice on the palate.

EDRADOUR, CASK STRENGTH £27.00

A 58% offering from the smallest distillery in Scotland. A full-bodied, rich and toffee-ish malt, with hints of Christmas cake, chocolate and dried fruits.

OBAN, DISTILLERS EDITION £22.00

Selected by the master distiller, this whisky was chosen for a special range of double matured whiskies. Matured in the standard bourbon barrel, this is then given an extra maturation period in Montilla Fino casks. Smoke, Fino sherry notes and a clean flavour abound in this stunning whisky. Distilled in 1995 and bottled 2010.

ARRAN 'BODEGA' SHERRY CASK £18.00

A well-sherried Arran single malt? Oh yes! This expression has been dubbed 'The Bodega'. After distillation at 56% from Lochranza the whisky is matured for seven years in first-fill sherry casks. Lots of dried fruit, figs and dark chocolate over here.

GLENFARCLAS 105 PROOF £15.00

A great whisky holding all the flavours of all the Glenfarclas in one glass. Being so warming, this is the perfect Hogmanay dram. The smoothness makes the 105 drinkable at cask strength, but we suggest adding a little water to fully explore its great depth.

CLYNELISH, 14 YEARS OLD £13.00

Keep going past Inverness to the village of Brora and you will find Clynelish distillery. A fragrant spicy nose leads to a beautiful honey and citrus palate.

SPEYSIDE

ABERLOUR A'BUNADH

£22.00

A cask strength 59% bottling of mature Aberlour that embraces the -true character of Speyside. Rich, chocolatey, with orange zest and cinnamon spice; a mellow and seductive dram.

GLENFARCLAS, 15 YEARS OLD

£18.00

This well-respected malt is the favourite of many connoisseurs and is renowned for its complexity. Rich and toasty with hints of almonds and bitter chocolate.

GLENFIDDICH, 18 YEARS OLD

Whisky aficionados so often overlook the world's biggest selling single malt. Pound for pound, we don't think there is a better 18-year-old single malt on the market. This is classic Speyside with just that little bit extra.

THE BALVENIE, CARIBBEAN CASK

£16.00

Known for their cask finishes, Balvenie have used rum casks to impart flavours of vanilla and tropical fruit into this whiskey. At 14 years old, this whiskey has a lovely, matured mouth-coating feel with fruity notes and an overall superb balance.

ISLAY

BOWMORE, 12 YEARS OLD

£10.00

Salt seaweed and smoke on the nose are followed by persistent sherry sweetness, and robust heathery and spicy notes. Thoroughly appetizing.

BOWMORE, 18 YEARS OLD

£26.00

Cosseted away in the finest, hand-selected oak casks and allowed to mature at its own sedate pace, this is one of the most remarkable, perfectly balanced single malt scotch whiskies of its kind. One of our rarest whiskies, bottles of Bowmore 18-year-old may be limited, but there's no end to its enjoyment.

LAPHROAIG, QUARTER CASK

£13.00

Not your normal Laphroaig here, instead an experimental double maturation at higher strength. Matured in normal bourbon casks, the whisky is then finished in special quarter casks. Fantastic!

LAGAVULIN, 12, SMALL BATCH

£26.00

This is no ordinary Lagavulin; a cask strength limited edition of the most powerful malt of all, densely packed with smoky and peaty flavours and dark sherry notes, with a great big bear hug of peat on the finish. Not for the faint-hearted!

PORT CHARLOTTE, 10 YEARS OLD

Made at Bruichladdich distillery, and somewhat different in style, with its fat, full on Islay style of iodine, phenols and smoke but with great underlying fruit.

BUNNAHABHAIN, 12 YEARS OLD

£17.00

This is the gentlest of the Islay distilleries. With subtle smoke and an almost marshmallow characteristic. A great distillery that despite looking a little down on its luck still produces great spirits.

BUNNAHABHAIN, 18 YEARS OLD

A subtle take on Islay whisky can be found here. Gone are the typical medicinal aromas people expect from an Islay malt. Instead, a gentle peatyness gives a salted caramel aroma with hints of fresh rosemary and salted nuts. A one of a kind to say the least.

ARDBEG, UIGEADAIL

£16.00

According to our wine merchant the greatest whisky in the world a bold statement indeed, but we do agree it is very good. With peat, smoke, a great richness and then wonderful Christmas cake raisined fruit – this is so balanced and if ever a whisky could convert people to peat disciples, then this would be it.

KILCHOMAN, MACHIR BAY

The new distillery on Islay, it's young, vibrant with cracking peaty, iodine characters, and then the rich vanillas, and sherry cask influence. Young, but good very good.

THE ISLANDS

TALISKER, 18 YEARS OLD

£24.00

Isle of Skye - Talisker, the iconic island distillery. There are younger versions, there are older versions, but the 18-year-old delivers way beyond its years. Integrated smoke, and spice, with gentle sweetness and one of the most rounded mouth feels ever.

SCAPA, SKIREN

£11.00

Isle of Orkney - With its intermittent production where staff from the neighbouring Highland Park distillery would come over to fire this mothballed distillery to keep it going and to produce a handful of barrels each year, Scapa has always been scarce. Gentle, soft and so unlike a Hebridean style.

LEDAIG, 10 YEARS OLD

Isle of Mull - This is the peated version of Tobermory. Bottled at a proper strength without chill filtration or artificial colouring, this has a beautiful cut of the iodine and peat normally associated with Islay.

THE LOWLANDS

AUCHENTOSHAN, 12 YEARS OLD

£11.00

Scotland's only triple distilled malt whisky.

AUCHENTOSHAN, THREE WOOD

£13.00

Often known as Glasgow's distillery, Auchentoshan, is often considered to be more like an Irish whiskey, something to do with the fact that it is distilled three times. It's also matured in three different casks, which adds even more layers of flavour.

GLENKINCHIE, DISTILLERS EDITION

Not your normal Glenkinchie here, instead one that has benefitted from a double maturation. With its maturation enhanced by being finished in an amontillado cask, extra nuances of flavour are added to this queen of the lowland's distillery.

CAMPBELTOWN

LONGROW, PEATED

£14.00

Salt and a leathery smokiness come to the fore in a maritime combination, like a harbourmaster's jacket. A great entry-level offering from Longrow perfect for Islay fans looking for something a bit different.

BLENDING AND GRAIN

BALLANTINES, 17 YEARS OLD

£14.00

2010 "Jim Murray's Scotch blend of the year". Serene and interesting on the tongue. Touches of smoke, biscuity and a finish that gives you time to pick out each piece. Masterful.

BLUE HANGER 6th RELEASE

£26.00

The 2012 release is a departure from the Berry Brothers' regular style, combining the usual sherried Speyside malt with some unpeated and peated Islay whisky. A big and rich dram with notes of struck matches, dried fruit and peat smoke.

MAC NA MARA

Chosen as our "house pour" whisky – it's got flavour and character.

JOHNNIE WALKER DOUBLE BLACK

£12.00

A favourite tippable for a whisky on the rocks. Elegant spices balance together with a sweet, smoked honey nectar in one of the best blends on the market.

JOHNNIE WALKER BLUE LABEL

This super-premium offering certainly sets the benchmark for blended whisky. Being one of the few distilleries to use Islay malts for its final product, Blue Label holds its weight as one of the very best.

MIDDLETON

Named after their master distiller Barry Crockett, this is his personal selection using old and elegant pot still whiskeys exclusively matured in American bourbon barrels. The taste is of lime and mandarin oranges with a dusting of cinnamon and vanilla oak.

TEELING SINGLE GRAIN

£13.00

Only released in 2013 Teelings single grain whiskey certainly holds well against competitors in the slow growing grain whiskey market. After a full term maturing in Californian cabernet sauvignon cask the results give an orange spicy note with hints of pine and cinnamon, with subtle anise and dried fruits on the palate.

DELAMAIN

Founded in 1824, Delamain remains one of the last family owned cognac houses. Using only spirit from the Grande Champagne, the cognac is aged for a minimum of two decades, before being blended and bottled. The style, finesse and breed of Delamain is exemplified by "pale and dry" – which at an average of 25 years of age - is the definitive XO cognac.
