

NORTHCOTE BAR

OUR CURRENT WHISKY FAVOURITES

LEDAIG (Tobermory) £12.30

Iona says: 'My taste entirely. A peaty melody undercut by a salty, no-fuss character. The distillery also once produced a limited edition with an excellent name.'

THE BALVENIE CARIBBEAN £16.70

CASK (Speyside)

Brad says: 'A round and rich treat with a softer, fruitier character. Sounds familiar...'

MIDLETON BARRY CROCKETT £32.50

LEGACY (Ireland)

The kind of stuff you want to nose before every sip, discovering more fruit medley inside a pot still blend which is distilled in both bourbon and new oak.

PENDERYN (Wales) £11.10

Incredibly smooth palate with a satisfying finish reminiscent of Madeira cake. For Penderyn, this is essentially the house style.

FIELDEN (England) £19.50

Entirely regenerative, restorative, and natural farming results in a dram almost as interesting as its story. Distinct softness balanced with any rye's signature spice.

HIBIKI HARMONY (Japan) £18.40

A skilfully made Suntory with a long, inviting finish courtesy of its complex blend. The bottle is cut in 24 facets, representing the seasons of the traditional Japanese lunar calendar.

BASIL HAYDEN (The Americas) £10.70

They call it the Gateway Bourbon for a reason. Light on the palate, vanilla and spice dance with new wood. High rye and approachable.
